ONI DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

My dear Mr. Baird:

The Central Intelligence Agency has been consistently helpful in providing expert lecturers in support of various curricula at the Naval Intelligence School. This support is greatly appreciated. The school is currently conducting a course which embraces the subject of unconventional warfare. It will be greatly appreciated if the services of a lecturer could be made available on 11 May 1959 to address the students on the subject "Intelligence for Special Operations". In view of the scope of this subject three hours have been set aside for the lecturer's use, commencing at 0930 on that date.

Sincerely yours,
